

The Jerome Levy Economics Institute

"Economic Inequality at the Close of the Twentieth Century"
Winter Workshop

February 1-2, 1991

Friday, February 1

- 9:30-10:00           Introductory Remarks:   S Jay Levy
- 10:00-12:00           Chair:   David Levy
- McKinley Blackburn, David Bloom and Richard
                          Freeman: "The Distribution of Labor Market Outcomes: Measuring and Explaining Trends and Patterns in the 1980s for Selected Demographic Groups in the United States"
- Maria Cancian, Sheldon Danziger and Peter
                          Gottschalk: "The Role of Increased
                          Earnings of Women on the Distribution of Family Income"
- 12:00- 2:00           Lunch
- 2:00- 5:00           Chair:   Dimitri Papadimitriou
- Greg Duncan and Timothy Smeeding: "Changes in the Distribution of Permanent Income in the USA: The Role of Earnings, Property Incomes, Taxes, and Transfers"
- Robert Haveman: "Poverty, Inequality, and the Use of Earnings Capacity, 1973-89"
- Barbara Wolfe: "The Role of Health in Limiting Earnings Capacity, Poverty and Welfare Participation"
- 6:00- 7:30           Dinner
- 7:30- 9:30           Open Discussion:   Coffee and Cognac Served.

Saturday, February 2

9:15-11:00

Chair: S Jay Levy

Christopher Jencks and Susan Mayer: "Trends in Inequality of Consumption, Living Conditions, and Well-Being"

Edward Wolff: "Can a 'Social Security
Capital Fund' Reduce the Growing Wealth
Gap Among Age Groups in the US?"

11:15- 1:00

Policy Forum: Second Meeting

1:00- 2:00

Lunch