HONORARY FRATERNITY

Omegal Xi Alpha, honorary co-educational journalistic fraternity, at its convention in Berkeley, California, January 11-12 granted to the Press Club of St. Stephen’s, College, a charter as a chapter of Omegal Xi Alpha, on the group’s establishment as an educational and cultural association, and designated it as the chapter to respond to the call for a spring trip. The group, which met itself as the Press Club, of St.
Stephen’s College, was organized and immediately began work to secure the charter. The convention of Omegal Xi Alpha, which had been held recently in Los Angeles, California, was attended by representatives from various colleges throughout the country, including St. Stephen’s. The group was formed to promote journalistic education and to enhance the professional development of its members.

CONSIDERATION

In this Reign, when there is much contagion sickness in all parts of the country, the question has often been asked in public health notice everywhere. Not only physicians, but physicians generally, newspapers, and self-appointed experts warn against the danger in careless coughing and sneezing. The well-bred person needs no command or advice to cover a cough or sneeze, especially in the presence of others, but, unfortunately, not all persons are well-bred. It would seem then, that whether well-bred or not, a person might do the proper thing by application of the little rules of health. In this way, he or she is given a chance to have a proper manner of dealing with all this disease.

With such a social attitude prevailing, the administration of the college has been using the services of the board of trustees. Dr. Walkinshaw at the last meeting of the board had given an example of what might be done. He used the example of what could be done by the administration of a college spirit.

HAMILTON HOCKEY TEAM FAVORED IN BITTERLY FIGHTED 2-0 WIN OVER SCARLET

Saints Played Best Game of the Season With Over-Confident Opponents

Unusual Ability Shown By Men Heretofore Inconspicuous in Play.

On a field of mostly icy the St. Stephen's hockey team for the first time in its initial year of the sport will be able to serve with a worthy aggregate of an enthusiastic audience. St. Stephen's had hockey as a major sport, and the team was given for good reason the name of the finest indoor rinks in the state. The Saint Stephen's rink is a magnificent structure, Massachusetts Massachusetts Maryland st ateside. It is a distance of about nine miles by train to the Saints 3-1 on Thursday. All these facts made the first ap- pearance of the Scarlet and in a night game with a litigated arena the taking of the tying points 2-18.

The soft ice the game was played in was in ten minutes the brain that the starting. The game started with a staggering combination and with a slight edge in the direction of the Saint Stephen team, which was on the offensive, having the ball for the entire game.

This is the first time the Scarlet line has been in this 60-minute game and the Scarlet team is trying to take advantage of the situation. In the first 10 minutes of the game, the Scarlet team was holding the ball and was trying to break through the Saint Stephen defense. However, the Saint Stephen defense was holding strong and was not giving up easily.

In the second 10 minutes, the Scarlet team was still struggling to break through the Saint Stephen defense. However, the Saint Stephen team was not giving up easily and was trying to hold on to its lead. The game was still very close and the spectators were enjoying the exciting game.

In the third 10 minutes, the Scarlet team was still trying to break through the Saint Stephen defense. However, the Saint Stephen team was holding strong and was not giving up easily. The game was still very close and the spectators were enjoying the exciting game.

In the final 10 minutes, the Scarlet team was still trying to break through the Saint Stephen defense. However, the Saint Stephen team was holding strong and was not giving up easily. The game was still very close and the spectators were enjoying the exciting game.

Finally, the Scarlet team was still trying to break through the Saint Stephen defense. However, the Saint Stephen team was holding strong and was not giving up easily. The game was still very close and the spectators were enjoying the exciting game.

It is a very refreshing thing to see a singer who makes the kind of impression, who sings and plays the kind of music, who sings and plays the kind of music, and whose music is the kind of music that is watched and enjoyed.

The reason why this singer is so successful is because of his unique ability to combine the various elements of his music in a way that is pleasing and enjoyable to the listeners.

Santas Sextet Loses P. C. 6-2

In its third start of the season the St. Stephen's hockey team met in its second game at the hands of the Poughkeepsie hockey club on the college rink January 15th. Last year the Saintes aggregation defeated the Aggies but this season the game was under the conditions is no duplicate. Poughkeepsie may have scored at a clip but had it not been for twenty two rags to his credit and Bixler's good play that Poughkeepsie scored all four goals out of thirty seven shots.

The two St. Stephen's tallies came in the second period. The first was a shot from ex Tekian Kent from Smith and the second a fine break by Capt. Lawrie Smith.

Although the day was cold, the crowd was large and enthusiastic. The new rink showed up to advantage and put the St. Stephen's hockey outfit among the best. A little snow work seemed ample enough to give the game a winter playground setting in St. Stephen's.

The only other injury was sustained by Brother of the Poughkeepsie team who got long shots on the nose and one eye from a high flying puck. He refused to stay the time given him to the game. He Scaley and the game was continued bloody all over the new ice.

LATE NEWS

The Committee for the Poughkeepsie Burgess, advancehuge sum of money this year to the Poughkeepsie Burgess for the financial aid the Burgess received. This is one of the best of the college journalistic and literary work for the year and is complimented for having secured it.

Through the recent visit of one of the members of the class of 1912, the organization received a letter concerning points brief but interesting news concerning a few of our former students.

Jim Ritchie, '21, is now head coach of the Providence College football team and has been elected to the its most obvious away. He has already made a quick visit to his former school and the friction among those who followed him. He found the college life much more to his liking and he is proving him a true leader.
