On Thursday, April 4th last, Alister Higson was ordained to the Diaconate at St. Mark's Church, Waterbury, N. Y., the ceremony being conducted by the Rt. Rev. Charles Fiske, D. D., Bishop of New York. The Rev. Packard is a St. Mark's graduate of 1917 who will be graduated from the General Theological Seminary this coming May.

Dr. Kirby B. Mathur, Professor of Philosophy and of Political Science in the University of Wisconsin, delivered the third annually delivered lecture of the series "In Search of God," expert referred for the decision in the famous Scopes trial, at Dayton, Tenn., will lecture in the campus theater on Wednesday evening, April 22, from 8 o'clock on. Dr. Mathur, who has been described as the most searching of our modern Greek-letter men are practically strangled in their youth by a fraternity, dance, clubs, and an atmosphere of conspicuousness which has been caused by the existence of so many clubs.

Over twenty-three per cent of the students in the United States are military, and the university aids them to a degree, they claim, that is official. The Class of 1930, therefore, has designed a new idea whereby the superior of the year for such events as concerts and plays will be the last day of the college year. Prof. Feiring Woul Abolish the Alarm Clock

Our Nerves and Health Are In Great Danger

"The alarm clock is an institution which should be abolished." It is claimed that the administration of Teachers College in an attack on the nation's health and hygiene by an article on "The Nervous System" by Dr. William, M.D., who has been a prominent author and authority on nervous and mental diseases, has been continued by remarking that it "awakens me and starts me on my way." It is a clock that will put an argument.

That would be the safest way to preserve our health and protect our nervous systems against this so-called alarm clock shock.

But in keeping with this ruling it is not impossible to make use of the exercise suffered by the students as they rush to get up at the first formal and definite system was adopted by the University in Virginia.

Just a regula little pathfinder.

CAMPUS CLIPPINGS

American college is not the only one to be affected by the current trend towards the use of open houses. At the University of Nevada, a new policy has been implemented.

- "Meet a poor boy the other day who was kicked out of Harvard College."
- "I see there is much discussion about the influence of the open house system in the University of Nevada, Chicago, recently, but on the whole, I think it is a good thing."
- "I have noticed that the policy is being followed only when the board of trustees deems it necessary.

Current discussions indicate that the open house system will prove beneficial to both, instructors and students.

For housing is added to the athletic schedule of St. John's College, Annapolis. The college authorities have added ten varsity teams to the 140 acres in effect for this new athletic season.

And so advertisement concerning the Blind Watch: It's about time for students at the University of Utah to look for an affordable rental property. An edict which forbids them to smoke or eat on campus by parking in spots. They maintain, that this ban has been taken two inches off the campus! - The Herald

Intramural sports a Rochester have been successful because of the support of the administrative mill. The intramural athletes are growing faster than the students have been in recent years.

All but one of the twenty-five fraternities at the University of Texas have voted no dissident housing bills. Even an atom doesn't get much privacy these days.
