Junior Week End Postponed

CONDITIONS RENDER SUCCESS
IMPOSSIBLE.

It is with regret that in this, the Junior number of the "Messenger," the decision to postpone, indefinitely, the "Junior Week End," which was to be held from May 24th to the 26th, is announced.

Several causes are responsible for this action, which was taken only after careful consideration. Chief among these, is the effect the War has had on boys who would ordinarily have entered college next year. Many, of course, have enlisted. Others are not free to accept an invitation to visit here in the latter part of May, owing to their engagements for farm work. Some have decided not to enter college next year at all because plans made now, must be tentative and they feel that it is better to wait until the situation clears before they take a step which will require any length of time for completion. Besides this principal obstacle, the early date set for Commencement shifts the Senior examinations ahead, causing them to be held during the very week-end chosen for the entertainment of the Junior's guests. The other examinations begin on the following Monday, and it quite improbable that the Undergraduates would have found the leisure to act the part of hosts.

It will readily be seen that the abandonment of the Juniors' plans was due to causes entirely beyond their control, and no blame will redound to them for seeming failure. Their efforts, moreover, are not entirely barren, even if nothing further was accomplished than that the college was so much the more widely advertised.

Third Liberty Loan

ANNANDALE SUBSCRIPTIONS
DOUBLE QUOTA.

At the present time, the whole nation is rejoicing over the wonderful success of the Third Liberty Loan. Owing to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Upton, subscriptions from Annandale, doubled the quota of $4,000, the final amount being somewhat over $9,000. We have just cause to be proud of Annandale and rejoice with the community in its flag and star, which now flies proudly on Main street.

In this connection, the students will be glad to learn, that as a reward for her splendid and efficient service, the government has awarded Mrs. Upton a handsome Liberty Bell.

Dragon Club Lecture

The Rev. Henry St. John Rathbun, '10
Tells of War Zone Experiences.

On Saturday Evening, April 27th, in Preston Hall, the Rev. Henry St. John Rathbun, '10, Headmaster of Hoosac School, gave a lecture under the auspices of the Dragon Club. He took as his subject "The War" and very entertainingly related his experiences as an ambulance driver in France.

Mr. Rathbun said that he was at Verdun during the terrible battle there, engaged in ambulance work. When asked if he had ever had an accident, he said that the only thing considered an accident by the ambulance driver, was a complete smash-up and that while he had had many "mis-haps," he had always managed to set his Ford on its "feet" again and continue his work. Mr. Rathbun never actually entered a first line trench although he had plenty of opportunity of sodoing. His work never made his presence in the trenches a necessity, and he preferred not to venture there, solely for the purpose of novelty.

The ambulance driver sees many airplanes, especially German ones. Mr. Rathbun said, and related an exciting struggle which he witnessed, between a French and German plane. The Frenchman was victorious and the German plane smashed to the ground within the confines of the French camp.

Mr. Rathbun saw many German prisoners, and, as he says, they are like ordinary men. Like all, they are anxious for the war to come to an end and they apparently seem to be somewhat discouraged. From his talk with them, he inferred that German efficiency was somewhat lower now, than at the beginning of the war.

In conclusion, the speaker said we must not make the mistake of underestimating the strength of our enemy. We must put our shoulder to the wheel and win out, whatever the cost may be. The most important thing now, is the winning of the war and there is something for everyone to do in the accomplishment of this end. After the war ends, whether favorably for us or unfavorably, we, at home, must be in a position to help uphold and strengthen the ideals of our returning soldiers.

Mr. Rathbun was compelled to cut short his ambulance work and return home suddenly, owing to the serious illness of his sister. He reckons himself "on leave" and expects to return soon in the capacity of Chaplain.

Spitzli Leaves For Camp

ALUMNUS INSTRUCTOR CALLED TO REPORT MAY 10th.

Mr. George Eckert Spitzli, an Alumnus of the Class of 1917, and since last September, Instructor in German and Preparatory Mathematics, English and History, left College on Wednesday, May 8th, to go into training at either Fort Slocum or Camp Upton. "Chick" has been called as an alternate, which means that he may not have to go into actual training until the next draft.

Mr. Spitzli, whose home is in Utica was born at Clinton, Mass., and entered Saint Stephen's in the Fall of 1913. Throughout his whole undergraduate life, he proved himself a brilliant and capable scholar, as well as an enthusiastic worker in all student organizations. We welcomed him back this year as an instructor in various subjects and his students bear witness to his ability and efficiency as a teacher. It is with real regret that we lose him and the good wishes of all go with him in his new and greater work.

DR. LANGE AT ST. JOHN'S BARRYTOWN.

Dinner Given the Rev. Mr. Bentley
Who Leaves To Take Up Work
In South Boston.

Dr. Lange, in addition to being Rector of Holy Cross Church, Kingston, and Instructor in History here, has consented to take charge of the Sunday service at St. John's Church, Barrytown. The service is Even-song at 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Mr. Bentley, former rector, who has left to take up work in South Boston, Mass., was entertained at dinner in Preston Hall, on Monday evening, April 29th. At the dinner, which was arranged for and given by Mrs. Chipman, were present, in addition to the members of the Faculty and Upper Classmen, Mrs. Bentley, Mrs. Upton, Mrs. Chipman and Master and Miss Bentley.

Camp News of Juniors In The Service

"Chas." Wilson Tells of "Deck" Over
There and "Bent" in the Same Camp.

Camp Greene, N. C., April 23, '18.

"* * * The first thing to tell you is, what has happened to Deck Sinsabaugh. Well, about a month ago I happened to meet one of his tent-mates in Charlotte and he told me that they were to leave for Camp Merritt at four A. M. the following morning. You can imagine how surprised I was. Sgt. Jackson, Deck's friend, told me to drop in at one of the hotels in which the company was giving a "farewell dance." Being anxious to see Deck before he left I assured him that I would be there. I went and had a glorious time. Of course, Deck and I had "one of our old college chats." Sentiment made me sorry to see him go, but, of course, we are all envious of those who leave us behind.

A week or so ago I received a letter from Deck's mother saying that he had been at Camp Merritt for three days and had had a twenty-four hour pass to go home. The rest of the time Mrs. Sinsabaugh spent at the camp. You know that it is right near Tenafly. So, by this time Deck is across the Atlantic. A letter from the class would please him very much, I am sure. You could reach him by addressing his mail: 1st Army Headquarters, Company "C," American Expeditionary Forces.

I am glad to say that if things turn out as they appear, although Deck beat me in enlisting by quite a margin, he will not have beaten me much on going over. From all appearances we shall be out of here in about two weeks and on our way to Camp Merritt. How glad I shall be when that time comes. Living in Jersey City, I am hoping to get home for a few hours, but as yet I cannot say whether or not we shall be given passes.

As you know the 77th F. A. is in the 4th Division. To date most of the infantry of this division has already gone. Sunday the 4th Engineers left, and yesterday the 4th Division Headquarters Company vacated. As these two organizations are always the van-guard of a division we are pretty sure of following. When we do leave I shall at least try to drop you a card, if nothing else.

I was down town one evening at St. Peter's Episcopal Church Parish House enjoying a good dance when I noticed a crowd of men around the piano singing that old Wisconsin football song. You know the one I mean. At any rate, I went over and listened to the men talking about their col-

THE VALUE OF OUR LIBRARY.

Here at St. Stephen's College we are fortunate enough to possess a very extensive library. During my life here as a student I have been greatly surprised at the remarkably small number of men that I have found frequenting that building.

During this winter, as you know,
there was a number of books transferred from the large library to one of the rooms in Potter. This was done to make it possible for us to do

extensive reading, while the library was closed during the cold weather.
How many of us have taken advantage of that golden opportunity to become acquainted with the works of the famous authors?

It seems to me that it is during our college life that we are, if ever, to develop our tastes for "worth while" literature. There is a vast field of extensive reading right at our very doors, and many of us are unaware of the fact.

Visiting the library, at first, may be tiresome and reading forced. This is of course to be expected at the start, but if we take a certain department of literature and confine our reading to it, I feel certain we will receive hours of untold interest, as well as a unrealized pleasure. In a small way, have found this to be the case in my reading, and there is no reason why it should not be the case with all of our men who are in college. Learn to cultivate the reading of good books and you will have life long friends of lasting interest.

—Castleman, '19.

STUDYING UNDER DIFFICULTIES

"Almost all occupations are cheered and lightened by music." Thus does W. C. Bryant regard the charms of the lyre. But does he take into consideration under what conditions people labor at their occupations? Does he think that under all conditions, the charms of music will arouse rapture,
transports and fancies?

It is evident that he has not attempted to study here at St. Stephen's after eight o'clock P. M. After that hour, to say that music hath charms is to disguise it in sentimental "frillery." The whirlpool of various discords coming from a piano to the ears of a student, produces unconscious and apprehension for his next day's work. The suggested words of some popular song do not fit in well with his translation. When he gets as far as "When Greece her waves in compliance bends," "Some Sunday Morning" comes floating through the halls. He raps for the noise to cease. All becomes quiet.
He turns to his task again, and for half an hour makes good progress.
"Boots, Boots" shrieked from a phonograph rushes madly forth and assails his ears. His work is again interrupted. Music has no charms under these conditions.

No doubt there are some who enjoy diversion during the evening by playing the piano or phonograph, but to others who have work to do it is an annoyance.

But we don't mind. Our Motto is "Any thing to please the boys" So the butlet exits with the tray (One of his many joys).
