WHO'S WHO IN 1918

Only Four Men Graduate Out of One of the Largest Entering Classes.

We may well ask "Where, O Where Are The Grave Old Seniors," when we find the class "mighty in battle," which once numbered eighteen men, graduating but four. The cause of her depleted numbers, however, is one of which 1918 can well be proud, for she has seven or eight men in the Service—infantry, cavalry and hospital work, both here and abroad.

Of the four men who are graduating, three expect to enter immediately upon their seminary work and one plans to go into training with the National Army this summer.

1918 has been an influential class throughout its four years' existence. As Sophomores, they were the largest and strongest class on the campus. Every member has taken an active part in the life here at St. Stephen's and leaves the college a better and stronger place, and us undergraduates an example to emulate.

In detail, the graduates are:

MUSIC, SNAPPY—

EVENING IDEAL—

GIRLS

The longlooked for evening of May 17th has come and gone and is now nothing but a memory. On that evening the members of the New York Sigma Phi Chapter of Sigma Alpha Epsilon were hosts at the Spring dance. The affair was held in Ludlow and Willink Hall, an ideal place for such a function. The Trustees' Room was beautifully decorated with lilacs; the large fraternity banner hung above the chaperones' alcove; lights were shaded with the purple and gold; at one end of the room a large S. A. E. sign was illuminated

THE MESSENGER

THE RED CROSS DRIVE.

Enthusiastic Meeting in Preston Hall.

After the noble response to the Third Liberty Loan Drive, the time has come for the nation once again to call upon the public to take part in another drive which shall aid in winning the war.

On Thursday, May 23rd, the college dining-hall was filled with college people and those from the surrounding country to take part in a rally, planned to stimulate interest in the wonderfull work of the Red Cross and its needs at the present time.

After the singing of “America” and several selections by the Glee Club, Mrs. Hale of Philadelphia, sang several beautiful solos. Thereupon the speaker of the evening, Dr. Brown, of Poughkeepsie, was introduced by Dr. Rodgers.

Dr. Brown spoke very forcefully of the work and needs of the Red Cross in the present war. He told of the vastly different actions of the German Red Cross as compared with the British, French, Italian and American; of how the Red Cross was the second line of defense. The “vile, despicable gang” in Germany was bitterly denounced for its brutal, inhuman methods of capturing its own men. The war is not in this war for any special love for England, France or Italy,” said Dr. Brown but because mutiny must be crushed for all times and to that end, we are willing to fight with the spirit shown by our fathers in 1776.

Upon this great volunteer, we must get behind the boys ‘over there’ and support them faithfully.

We must, to use the popular phrase, ‘give it until it hurts’.

After the very stirring address, the audience passed the “Star Spangled Banner” and the college gave a “long St. Stephen’s” for the Red Cross.

The district of Annandale was apportioned $1,000.00 and placed in charge of Mrs. Upton. The students’ contributions aggregated about $82.

Dr. and Mrs. Rodgers entertained.

On Wednesday evening, May 22nd, Dr. and Mrs. Rodgers entertained in honor of the Class of 1918. Those present at the Sentinel were the members of the faculty, Mrs. Upton, the Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Hale, and Miss Adams. The evening was enjoyed at cards.

S. A. E. FRATERNITY DANCE.

and set in a background of flowers.

The other rooms held banquets of the college and college organizations.

The evening was ideal and the music of the very best. It was so ideal that after eight thirty that the first one step was on full blast and the noise was filled with the college men and their beautifully groomed guests. The guests were as follows: Miss Rowan, of Pelham, with Grohman; Miss M. Dewey, of Bennington, Vt., with Hall; Miss Arthur, of Smithton, L. I., with Stany; the Messrs. Grace and Bessie Delaney, of Hudson, with Lounsbury and Castlemain; respectively; Miss Ha and Miss Rowe, of Rhinebeck, with Stretch and Dickerson, Miss Schick, Misses Louise and Helen Thomas, of Kingston, with Moore and Mason, Miss Tretzn, of Gloversville, with Pfaffko; the Misses Kerr, O’Malley and Russell, of Al bany, with Steele, Anders and Allin; Miss Judge, of New York, with Whitmore; the Misses Burns and Minnick, of Skidmore, with MacInon and Parrish; Miss Minning, of Jamaica, with L. L. with Coldwell; Miss MacFarren, of Syracusa, with Mattle, Miss Adams, of Red Hook, with Dr. Hobb, and Miss Fowler, of New York, with Mr. Fow ler. There were also among the guests Armstrong, ’14, Wilson, ’14, Childs, Sp., of N. Y., with the Misses Hawthorne, WeLess and Sparkling, of New York; Wilson from St. Lawrence University, Canton, with Miss Grib, of Poughkeepsie; and Miss Curtis, of Red Hook.

June is again here, and with it comes the fifty-eighth commencement of St. Stephen’s College. The fifty-eighth is one more than the fifty-seventh—yet, last June, some thought that St. Stephen’s had graduated her last class.

This year, doubtless, there are even a greater number who think that fifty-eight completes the number of graduations set down for St. Stephen’s in the Book of Destiny. But when these same individuals read next year, of St. Stephen’s fifty-ninth commencement, and the year after that, of St. Stephen’s sixtieth commencement, they will come to realize that she is not down, that she will never close her doors—that she is alive, kicking and growing, and making boys into men, and doing everything she can for the advancement of the nation, and of the Church.

So, let there be no pessimism this year about St. Stephen’s future. Let us bid the outgoing class good-bye, and good luck, and let us come back in September bearing a serviceable will come for the new men we shall find in our midst.

Babcock—Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Babcock announce the engagement of their daughter, Hildred C. to Mr. Harold Beach Adams, ’18. The wedding will take place some time during the Summer.
