Junior Week End
Postponed

CONDITIONS RENDER SUCCESS IMPOSSIBLE.

It is with regret that in this, the Junior number of the "Messenger," the decision to postpone, indefinitely, the "Junior Week End," which was to be held from May 24th to the 26th, is announced.

Several causes are responsible for this action, which was taken only after careful consideration. Chief among these, is the effect the War has had on boys who would ordinarily have entered college next year.

Many, of course, have enlisted. Others are not free to accept an invitation to stay here in the latter part of May, owing to their engagements for farm work. Some have decided not to enter college next year at all because plans made now, must be tentative and they feel that it is better to wait until the situation clears before they take a step which will require any length of time for completion. The early date set for Commencement shifts the Senior examinations ahead, causing them to be held during the very week-end chosen for the entertainment of the Junior's guests. The other examinations begin on the following Monday, and it is quite improbable that the Undergraduates would have found the leisure to act the part of hosts.

It will readily be seen that the abandonment of the Junior's plans was due to causes entirely beyond their control, and no blame will be assigned them for seeming failure. These efforts will be, not entirely barren, even if nothing further was accomplished than that the college was so much the more widely advertised.

Third Liberty Loan

ANNANDALE SUBSCRIPTIONS DOUBLE QUOTA.

At the present time, the whole nation is rejoicing over the wonderful success of the Third Liberty Loan. Owing to the untiring efforts of Mrs. Upton, subscriptions from Annandale doubled the quota of $4,000, the final amount being somewhat over $8,000. We have just cause to be proud of Annandale and rejoice with the community in its flag and star, which now flies proudly on Main Street.

In this connection, the students will be glad to learn, that as a reward for their splendid and efficient services, the government has awarded Mrs. Upton a handsome Liberty Bell.

The Rev. Mr. Bentley, former rector, who has left to take up work in South Boston, Mass., was entertained at dinner in Preble Hall, on Monday evening, April 26th. At the dinner, which was arranged for and given by Mrs. Chipman, were present, in addition to the members of the Faculty and Upper Chassens, Mrs. Bentley, Mrs. Upton, Mrs. Chipman and Miss Bentley.

MULTUM IN PARVO.

Before the "file, file, file" world should receive its quota from Saint Stephen's, Nature, the students and the Elderly, the Editorial Board, felt constrained to give them an issue "all their own" in which to air our views and various philosophies of life.

"And speaking of the Junior's philosophy, the situation in our minds is that where we place it. A club of Epiurus- in touch of Zoo and less Aristotle and a monograph of Ruppersgraphic picture, as it were, of ancient and modern, chosen at random. Maybe "Makkoneum" would place it, for surely, it is a philosophy of originality, harmony, loyalty and energy. We are sometimes moved to think that asking the prominence of the Juniors in the Glee Club, they think, have a monopoly on "close harmony" and that their four members have put the "magic" in Drachen Club. Far be it from us to call Nineteen "nonsensical"—but we should warn a class so energetic and spirited that unrestrained capriciosity often betrays tyrannical autocracy. Nevertheless, we must congratulate nineteen on their splendid showing of the class in the National service, not for any personal glory but for the purpose to show the value of the class in the college and the world.

The class has an ideal, we have Credentials for all of us, and that is not the reason we do not see the world as it is. We are not all God, but we may see it as God may. And it may be that there is a standard, and a standard, and a standard, and a standard, and a standard, and a standard. If the class fails, it means that the class has a standard, and a standard, and a standard, and a standard, and a standard, and a standard. We do not want the world to copy us, but we do want the world to copy us. We do not want the world to copy us, but we do want the world to copy us. We do not want the world to copy us, but we do want the world to copy us.

Old Reliance — Willie of Hooke.

Scene 14 Hoffmnn

A friend of ours across the hall Comes in for breakfast daily. I guess he partly owns the place. For he walks in very gay. He sits right down and opens eyes And wants them on the hat. Then badly stretches his long legs And big feet ‘cross the mat. The part I like the most is that He walks out when he wishes And leaves behind him on the shelf His dirty, eggy dishes. But we don’t mind. Our Motto is “Any thing to please the boys” So the ballet exits with the tray (One of his many joys). But he don’t care for he is just Like faithful Old Reliance And then you know, he’s dear Frank’s star In the art “Domestic Science.” Someday, I hope to graduate And have a hortepa for myself Someone to wash those dirty plates And put them on the shelf. Our boarder is a “Son of Rest” And I guess he’s slipped his tether. For it seems that he and real hard work Can’t get along together.

Movie Talk.

—Omaha Daily News.

I Wonder—

If “Othul” Latin class will show more signs of improvement new that Virgil is on the campus?

If Bingo likes his “new” motor cycle?

If Pfaffko got sick on account of his “fat” rig?

If beer and Davie like working?

If everyone likes rhubarb leaves?

If Fraser has found out the Question he is always calling for? Where the campus taxes can be? Why each Professor thinks we come here especially for his own subject?

What Andy’s underlying reason is when he says “Anything to please the boys”?

If the Juniors have discovered their weak end and have tried a remedy. If you are doing anything for the Glee Club? Why, if you don’t like the publications in the Messenger, you won’t send in something better for publication?
