PAN-HELLINIC DANCE

The Pan-Hellenic dance, scheduled formerly for tomorrow evening, December 5, has admirably been called off by the Council. Dr. Showtwell To Lecture

Distinguished Peace Promoter Speaks on “Learning by Catastrophe”

On next Monday evening, December 7, one of the most distinguished lecturers of the year, Professor Jairie Thomas Shotwell, Historical Director of the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace, will speak in the auditorium of the Memorial Gymnasium on the subject “Learning by Catastrophe,” covering many phases of industrial, economic, and international affairs.

The Shotwell, who is now forty-seven years old, has had under his direction the University of Toronto, where he took first class honors in General History. He has the degrees of Ph. D., LL. D., and Ed. D. Shotwell has given considerable effort toward international peace and has been known as Professor of History of Columbia University as well as one of the general editors of the Encyclopaedia Britannica. He is a member of the Preparatory Committee for the Peace Conference at the close of the World War and was on the Organizing Committee for the International Labor Conference in 1919.

As an author, Dr. Shotwell has written more than a score of volumes, containing much of what is unques tionable history in the theory of the Peace Conference at Paris every student knows. His Introduction to the History of History and his Introduction to United National Policy are especially prominent among the works of Peter A. H. of a History of the Papacy.

In his international activities the Professor has had most interesting experiences. In 1892 he was the lecturer at the Nobel Institution in Sweden. Among the orders to which he belongs are: member ship in the Belgium Academy of Science and Letters; he is in the Commander of the Order of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart, of the Crown of Belgium; and in Commandeur de l’Ordre de St. Jacques, of Yugoslavia.

The “JOURNEY TO THE CENTER OF THE EARTH”

During the first week of December, Dr. Showtwell will give his course of lectures in the Memorial Gymnasium on “The Journey to the Center of the Earth.” The course will be given on the following evenings:

Dr. Showtwell Head Dinner to be December 17

The basketball season at St. Stephen’s College got under way officially yesterday, and the game was a tip and tuck affair all the way through, the twenty-two man team from team to team. The game opened on the same note as both colleges and there was the raggedy in play on the part of the teams that with every season play in any sport. Three times, however, the Green played from time to time that required those in the stands for attending and which doomed both teams before entering to develop into powerful organizations. Three times, however, the Blue scored on twenty-five fewer offense. Shooting was not of the standard which it is to find its way through the basket only once.

Burgess, substitute St. Stephen’s center, was the high scorer of the evening scoring four times from the floor for a total of eight points. Maynos and Kerns, of the evening quintet, scored next with seven points each. Bill S. Good was outstanding in his passing and his defense with the ball, excepted the man who rides the two four short years on the floor.

Dr. Bell in Annual Report

Says All Freshmen Are Uninspired To College

In the annual report of the Warden of St. Stephen’s College, Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, which was made public during the past week, Dr. Bell quite emphatically scores the college year’s progress. Dr. Bell says that the college has been trained to do the things it is eminently trained for. He further says that the college does not have the ability to do what it is eminently trained for. This is as it should be.

The story more directly about Dr. Bell, said in the editorial, Dr. Bell, is that it is very likely there will be a change in the regulations for vigilance during the coming semester, as they are too severe. The story goes on to say that the college has been trained to do the things it should be trained for. The story goes on to say that the college has been trained to do the things it is eminently trained for.

The good weather has permitted steady work on the new park with the result that the old trees in the E. Q. X. house which will provide room for twenty cars. Much lighting has been necessary to clear out the old trees but it was expected that work would be completed in time for the Winter season.

Library Shelf

Some more new items of interest come the work from the very increasing list in the Hoffmann Memorial Library. Outstanding among the new additions is the recently released set of two handsome volumes, presented as a gift to the college by Albert J. Van Dyke and Catherine Rose Wilson, the former of whom is to lecture at St. Stephen’s later in the year. This is a masterpiece of scholarship and the work of years, and it is a Harcourt, Brace publication and is very well produced. The work is considered, what will probably remain for many years, the definitive edition of the works of Rabelais.

taken the junior college years, and sometimes the senior college years as well, will link him into such a phase that he may begin to work for himself at scholarly tasks.

Dr. Bell also points out the commonplace fact that most college freshmen, though selected with care, cannot do certain things which may reasonably be expected of them.

“For the most part they cannot step back and tell you what they see, listen to sounds and what they hear; in short, why, read, write or speak their own language or any other language with any more knowledge of how words are to be handled or what other people’s phrases really mean or, finally, that in general terms as distinct from specific and concrete things.”

A better adjusted curriculum is very necessary, Dr. Bell asserts, in the training of the college. St. Stephen’s, moreover, has designed a novel scheme of work, the purpose of which is to start with a student where he is when, after having been carefully chosen, he is accepted as an undergraduate, and finally turn him out, after four years at least on incalculably mature person.

The burden here is placed on the student who must self-prepare himself along with the professor as his guide and counselors rather than teachers.

“We have learned how to eliminate from our material, with kindness but firmness, such undergraduates as do not prove to be capable of self-propulsion; and those whom we do retain we leave free from rapid vacuity.

By Bell concludes his report by setting forth a number of resolutions towhich his colleagues on the Board of Trustees of the College for consideration and acceptance.
