Freeborn Made Chairman
As Trustees Reorganize

From the Dean

The election on Monday of Mr. James L. Freeborn to serve as Chairman of the Board of Trustees of Bard College is an important turning point in the life of the School. As a lifelong resident of Tivoli, Mr. Freeborn has a natural interest in the success of Bard and his election removes active support of the college to a maximum emphasis. As stewards and sixty-four resident students, this group of men will be able to operate on a sounder basis. We are gratified that all students with faculty will reorganize the inter-university committee in a sound and healthy fashion.

Harold Mestre

DEAN HAROLD MESTRE

FORUM DEBATES ON PUMP-PRIMING
Spring Tour To Include Hobart, Rochester

On the evening of March 2, Benson Hall, and Stoic Books, two of the three Forum members who recently returned from a debating tour through Pennsylvania, attended the affirmative side with two representatives of North Carolina's on the minority side. They decided that the federal government should cease using public funds for private business.

Professor's Panel

Present Monday at 8:00 p.m. at the Mermaid Tavern for the continuation of the debate on the question of the propriety of the Federal government's use of public funds for private business.

DEAN HAROLD MESTRE

ATTORNEY MEETING

On the evening of Monday, March 2, Benson Hall, and Stoic Books, two of the three Forum members who recently returned from a debating tour through Pennsylvania, attended the affirmative side with two representatives of North Carolina's on the minority side. They decided that the federal government should cease using public funds for private business.

Professor's Panel

Present Monday at 8:00 p.m. at the Mermaid Tavern for the continuation of the debate on the question of the propriety of the Federal government's use of public funds for private business.

DEAN HAROLD MESTRE

ATTORNEY MEETING

On the evening of Monday, March 2, Benson Hall, and Stoic Books, two of the three Forum members who recently returned from a debating tour through Pennsylvania, attended the affirmative side with two representatives of North Carolina's on the minority side. They decided that the federal government should cease using public funds for private business.

Professor's Panel

Present Monday at 8:00 p.m. at the Mermaid Tavern for the continuation of the debate on the question of the propriety of the Federal government's use of public funds for private business.

DEAN HAROLD MESTRE

ATTORNEY MEETING

On the evening of Monday, March 2, Benson Hall, and Stoic Books, two of the three Forum members who recently returned from a debating tour through Pennsylvania, attended the affirmative side with two representatives of North Carolina's on the minority side. They decided that the federal government should cease using public funds for private business.

Professor's Panel

Present Monday at 8:00 p.m. at the Mermaid Tavern for the continuation of the debate on the question of the propriety of the Federal government's use of public funds for private business.

DEAN HAROLD MESTRE

ATTORNEY MEETING

On the evening of Monday, March 2, Benson Hall, and Stoic Books, two of the three Forum members who recently returned from a debating tour through Pennsylvania, attended the affirmative side with two representatives of North Carolina's on the minority side. They decided that the federal government should cease using public funds for private business.

Professor's Panel

Present Monday at 8:00 p.m. at the Mermaid Tavern for the continuation of the debate on the question of the propriety of the Federal government's use of public funds for private business.

DEAN HAROLD MESTRE

ATTORNEY MEETING

On the evening of Monday, March 2, Benson Hall, and Stoic Books, two of the three Forum members who recently returned from a debating tour through Pennsylvania, attended the affirmative side with two representatives of North Carolina's on the minority side. They decided that the federal government should cease using public funds for private business.

Professor's Panel

Present Monday at 8:00 p.m. at the Mermaid Tavern for the continuation of the debate on the question of the propriety of the Federal government's use of public funds for private business.

DEAN HAROLD MESTRE

ATTORNEY MEETING

On the evening of Monday, March 2, Benson Hall, and Stoic Books, two of the three Forum members who recently returned from a debating tour through Pennsylvania, attended the affirmative side with two representatives of North Carolina's on the minority side. They decided that the federal government should cease using public funds for private business.

Professor's Panel

Present Monday at 8:00 p.m. at the Mermaid Tavern for the continuation of the debate on the question of the propriety of the Federal government's use of public funds for private business.

DEAN HAROLD MESTRE

ATTORNEY MEETING

On the evening of Monday, March 2, Benson Hall, and Stoic Books, two of the three Forum members who recently returned from a debating tour through Pennsylvania, attended the affirmative side with two representatives of North Carolina's on the minority side. They decided that the federal government should cease using public funds for private business.

Professor's Panel

Present Monday at 8:00 p.m. at the Mermaid Tavern for the continuation of the debate on the question of the propriety of the Federal government's use of public funds for private business.

DEAN HAROLD MESTRE

ATTORNEY MEETING

On the evening of Monday, March 2, Benson Hall, and Stoic Books, two of the three Forum members who recently returned from a debating tour through Pennsylvania, attended the affirmative side with two representatives of North Carolina's on the minority side. They decided that the federal government should cease using public funds for private business.

Professor's Panel

Present Monday at 8:00 p.m. at the Mermaid Tavern for the continuation of the debate on the question of the propriety of the Federal government's use of public funds for private business.

DEAN HAROLD MESTRE

ATTORNEY MEETING

On the evening of Monday, March 2, Benson Hall, and Stoic Books, two of the three Forum members who recently returned from a debating tour through Pennsylvania, attended the affirmative side with two representatives of North Carolina's on the minority side. They decided that the federal government should cease using public funds for private business.
REORGANIZATION

WITH the election of Mr. James L. Froy, chairman of the board of trustees, the beginning of the reorganization of that body as a whole group interested in Bard, we hope that at long last the present difficulty of cohesiveness and its continuance from year to year will be overcome; and that the minds of the students and faculty. We are glad to see this development for there is a genu-

The campus as a whole is grateful to ' considered report. The administration should be:informed of the faculty during the reorganizing of the Board of Trustees. It would have a private letter can be true
were the campus as a whole. We have and will endure another few years. For with genuine friendliness those
Bard's educational program.

ALMS FOR OBLIVION

THE campus has received with understandable cynicism the news that Bard will be becoming a bet fupped with impending crises and their surrounding emotionalism. To be thanked for this year's catastrophe. In the spring the members of the faculty committee were elected by the faculty after Mr. Masters resigned. It appears that they cna be considered to be an all but up to the power of the by revamping facts, a clear picture of Bard's needs and that the program will be further modified to suit an inferior type of administration; an encouraging sign on the horizon is the impending reorganization of the Board of Trustees. It would have a private letter can be true
were the campus as a whole. We have
and will endure another few years. For
with genuine friendliness those
Bard's educational program.

A letter to the editor

To the Editor of THE BARDIAN:

I am writing to express my dissatisfaction with the recent decisions made by the Board of Trustees. I believe that these decisions have been made without sufficient consideration for the needs of the students and faculty members.

The reorganization of the Board of Trustees has been a step in the right direction. However, I believe that the board has made some decisions that are not in the best interests of the institution.

I am concerned about the decision to cut funding for the performing arts program. I believe that this program is an important part of the educational experience at Bard and is essential for the development of students.

Furthermore, I am dismayed by the decision to increase tuition and fees. This decision will have a negative impact on the ability of many students to attend Bard.

In conclusion, I urge the board to reconsider these decisions and to prioritize the needs of the students and faculty members.

Sincerely,
[Your Name]
With the

BEAT NON-SOCS, RETIRE TROPHY

Bob Aufricht, Rosenberg, Doug Potter Nette League Honors

For the third successive year the Help captured the annual championship of college bowling, helping, this time, with Baltimore in the first place and Eastern College in the third. The Help secured second place, defeating Eastern College, the former club, in the final match, 2. Potter, who was named for the third successive year as the Most Valuable Player, attributes part of the Help's success in the championship to the absence of the early season boycott. The Help's dominant position was not only due to the presence of the experienced players, but also to the presence of the younger men. The Help's success is a reflection of the club's dedication to the sport and the support of the college administration.

Final Bowling Results

Leading Individual Scorers

Name

Series

Total

1. Bob Aufricht, K. C. G. 240

141.5

2. Rosenberg, K. C. G. 225

135.5

3. Potter, Doug 220

132.5

4. Rosenberg, K. C. G. 215

131.0

5. Rosenberg, K. C. G. 210

128.5

6. Rosenberg, K. C. G. 205

127.0

7. Rosenberg, K. C. G. 200

125.0

8. Rosenberg, K. C. G. 195

122.5

9. Rosenberg, K. C. G. 190

120.0

10. Rosenberg, K. C. G. 185

117.5

First Match Honors—Potter, Eros¬
...

Joint Hike on April 15 Planned
By Vassar, Bard Outing Clubs

A joint hike for members of the Vassar and Bard Outing Clubs has been planned for the weekend of April 15. It is being sponsored jointly by the Vassar and Bard Outing Clubs. Mary Tally of Vassar and Mrs. Henry of Bard were organists of the idea and together worked out the arrangements for the hike.

Other hikes and trips have been planned, including a hike overnighting and possible jeep drives, taking the help and the Bard group, with all members of the help to take place on the last Saturday in April, so as to terminate the tennis schedule of the Nassau cup at Reevesville, N. Y., with a month full of weekend activities.

At the recent meeting of the officers of the club, Roger Merritt, treasurer, reported a surplus in the treasury because of an unexpected increase in membership in late last season, and unpopped funds or credits in the bank. There will be a fund drive for the benefit of equipment which later will be necessary.

Wednesday, April 12, after lunch, a special meeting of the help will be held to discuss the plans of the club, and the help will be spending money, and also to eliminate plans of Bidon vacations.

Continued from page 17

In the past the Outing Club spent twenty of its members in Rehob¬
...

BARD COLLEGE TAXI

First National Bank

Red Hook, N. Y.

TRIBEEL'S

Garage and Machine Shop, Inc.

If We Do the Work You'll Be Satisfied

RED HOOK 17

Red Hook, N. Y.

ORCHARD SUPPLY

Incorporated

HARDWARE

Red Hook

New York

F. H. PIERSON & SON

Wholesale Dealers in

Meats and Poultry

473-477 MAIN STREET

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Quality Plus Service

MacDONELL & COOPER

Fruit and Produce

473-477 MAIN STREET

Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

Phone 473-477
Informal Dance Again Successful As Overflow Crowd Swells Albee

Senior Choose May 19 Date for Class Ball

At a meeting ruled by class president William Jordy on March 21, the students decided to hold their prom on Friday, May 18. No orchestra or decorations have been decided upon yet.

The baseball team will play at Albany State May 19, the day after the ball. Nevertheless, dance will not be without its campus entertainment that Saturday, for the tennis team is scheduled to play the faculty in the afternoon.

The all-campus dance, to be attended by all students, was held in the college gymnasium and was called the Spring Saturday night. All the girls were guests and participated fully in the activities of the evening.

The dance featured a live orchestra and a floor show that was well received by the students. The music was provided by the college orchestra and was well matched to the rhythm of the dance.

The atmosphere was lively and the mood was cheerful. The evening was a success and the students enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

"Ten Minute Alibi" Given Good Showing By Theatre

(Continued from page 1) A Leavesworth homemade play! Even a super-super stage person would have had difficulty in overcoming the bad "here 1 am" of such a mask. And then, there was no need to worry about the mask itself, because the actor himself was nearly always in character even when he made love.

As mentioned before, Betty needed about 80% more innocence than Ellen Moore had to have conversed with any audience that she really felt for "pay me the mortgage," "I love you," "I love you," and "I love you," etc.

And just about that much "myster the end party. Nevertheless, dance will not be without its campus entertainment that Saturday, for the tennis team is scheduled to play the faculty in the afternoon.

The all-campus dance, to be attended by all students, was held in the college gymnasium and was called the Spring Saturday night. All the girls were guests and participated fully in the activities of the evening.

The dance featured a live orchestra and a floor show that was well received by the students. The music was provided by the college orchestra and was well matched to the rhythm of the dance.

The atmosphere was lively and the mood was cheerful. The evening was a success and the students enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

"Ten Minute Alibi" on the whole never proved that a bad play written by a man with a n in has general culture is not necessarily a tremendous box-office success. To say that the Bard Thes-