BARD MUSICIANS PRESENT VARIED MONDAY NIGHT

Faculty, Student Talent Showcased in Program
At Bard Hall

A REVIEW

A program of musical achievements was played at Bard Hall last Monday night. On the program were three pieces for two pianos, played by Mrs. Yates and Mr. Craven. The pieces were by Beethoven and Debussy. There were also two ensembles performed by Mr. Daan and Mrs. Williams, of the Conservatory School of Music. Also performing was the Albert Bevan Quartet, playing a program of folk music.

“Peace” Subject Of Mrs. Roosevelt’s May 5 Talk

“Peace” will be the subject of Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt’s lecture for the benefit of the Bard College Emergency Fund, the committee promoting the lecture announced. It will be given on May 5.

11:30 Thursday, May 5, at the Graduate School of Music in Poughkeepsie. The committee, which also arranged the William Searl talk, is coming to Poughkeepsie.

According to a letter from Mrs. Roosevelt, she plans to speak of her work in the field of research, her work in the Red Cross and in the relief work of the Red Cross, and her work in the field of education. She will also speak of the nation-wide work of the Emergency Fund, and of the need for national unity in the present crisis.

THEATRE TO PRESENT SCENES FROM HAMLET

Selections Of Shakespeare In Shop Production Tonight

Tonight at 8:30 the Bard Theatre will present its second shop production of the season. This time it is Shakespeare and the performance will be from the Globe Theatre, London. The play is Hamlet, and the production will be directed by Mr. Rogers.

The cast includes Mr. Shakespeare as Hamlet, Mr. Rogers as Polonius, and Miss Shakespeare as Gertrude. The production will be open to the public for a nominal admission charge.

STRAW HAT GROWN FROM LEAF

In an interview, Mr. Rakeann, president of the New College of Teacher’s College, said that he believed the new college was a definite advance over the previous college. He said that it was a great honor to be associated with this college, and that he looked forward to the future of the college with great optimism.

Mr. Rakeann also announced the appointment of Dr. Gerald Ackerman as the new president of the college. Dr. Ackerman will take office on September 1.

Mr. Rakeann further announced that the college would open its doors on September 1. He said that the college was well-equipped to handle the increased number of students, and that he looked forward to the future of the college with great optimism.

Mr. Rakeann also announced the appointment of Dr. Gerald Ackerman as the new president of the college. Dr. Ackerman will take office on September 1.

Mr. Rakeann further announced that the college would open its doors on September 1. He said that the college was well-equipped to handle the increased number of students, and that he looked forward to the future of the college with great optimism.

Mr. Rakeann also announced the appointment of Dr. Gerald Ackerman as the new president of the college. Dr. Ackerman will take office on September 1.

Mr. Rakeann further announced that the college would open its doors on September 1. He said that the college was well-equipped to handle the increased number of students, and that he looked forward to the future of the college with great optimism.

Mr. Rakeann also announced the appointment of Dr. Gerald Ackerman as the new president of the college. Dr. Ackerman will take office on September 1.

Mr. Rakeann further announced that the college would open its doors on September 1. He said that the college was well-equipped to handle the increased number of students, and that he looked forward to the future of the college with great optimism.
UNITED FRONT TO THE RIGHT . . .

CONSERVATIVES are practicing what they are calling "the front tactic," that they are using against their front. In this case, the tory united front is called the Reformation Bill. The bill, its opponents said, would do away with the government's "bureaucratic" system and form a united front - against Roosevelt. These four tories, and form a united front - against Roosevelt. Only Miss Thompson is really anti-fascist; the others would welcome fas­cist dictatorships. You see how we can use it to make a case for the bill?

The bill, its opponents said, would do away with the government's "bureaucratic" system and form a united front - against Roosevelt. Only Miss Thompson is really anti-fascist; the others would welcome fascism.

ON RELIGION AT BARD

TO the Editor of THE BARDIAN:

The introduction of the Chapel idea and the establishment of a religious service on campus is a triumph for those students who have been fighting for a religious service here at the college. The Chapel idea is an attempt to get some of the facts of the unfortunate relations of church and state into the minds of the students. The Chapel is a place where the students can meet to discuss religious questions and to express their feelings and ideas about them.

The undergraduate of today is not a believer in strict temperance and its definite admixture of religion. He knows that church and state are not the same thing, and he knows that the life of the campus is as affected by religion as by any other influence. The Chapel will serve to bring the students together in a religious spirit, and it will also serve to give them an opportunity to express their feelings and ideas about religion.

Congregational Church in Madison Avenue, New York City, said that the pres­ent work is "admirable," and that the execu­tively designed organizations of religious and political leaders have been appointed by the President to work in the Washington office. The general opinion was that the whole program was a great success.

The Junior Class met with Dean Wrest on Wednesday afternoon, April 12, to discuss the Junior Class project for the senior projects, Dr. Mestre expected the students to present their projects and then reviewed the details which were to be observed by the Dean before May First.

The Junior Class project was originated to give to men in their final year an opportunity to work on a project that will be successful, although it is not always possible to escape the war or the prison. We'll try to escape, but will not be very successful in doing so. We will not be able to escape the war or the prison. We'll try to escape, but will not be very successful in doing so.

The Junior Class met with Dean Wrest on Wednesday afternoon, April 12, to discuss the Junior Class project for the senior projects, Dr. Mestre expected the students to present their projects and then reviewed the details which were to be observed by the Dean before May First.
With the Squad

John Goldsmith

Three years ago, in the middle of February, 1935, to be exact, interest began to mount in the campus for what was to become, eventually, a new, intramural competition, already known as the intramural athletic league. Since then Bard athletics, both intramural and varsity, have been on the up-grade. The genial gent, who coaches soccer, basketball and baseball, has waited in with his guns and, besides teaching them a thing or two, has somehow managed to teach every one of the varsity men in all sports that he handles directly.

In soccer, especially, the Scarlet representation has gone a long way in the past three seasons. Last Fall Ackie mobilized a well balanced team that broke a three year losing streak and this Spring, with the same players, they have gone through the tourney with unblemished records and teams arecourted. Hamilton, which never housed teams or defeated before by a Bard or St. Stephen's player, is a hot item, and Famer, one of the strongest teams this year, was held to 1-1 in the final game of the year.

... and the man who has directed the development of the Scarlet has been none other than the Scarlet. What was the secret of the Scarlet's success? Greatly because of the attention and coaching ability of one man. For instance take the increased interest in intercollegiate softball, for example. In the past few years the policy of athletics for all has been reformed, and this has been greatly because of the attention and coaching ability of one man. Ackie was busy pecking out a letter league, the Scarlet batsmen will take to the diamond, for example, as in his time at the helm of the Scarlet. His coaching, according to size is made at the Re-...
previous experience in physical education, before going to college, as physical director of the Chester, Pennsylvania, YMCA.

While attending Springfield, Ackerman starred in athletics, winning varsity letters in basketball, football, soccer, lacrosse, track, baseball and gymnastics. Outstanding in basketball, he led the cagers in scoring during his senior year. He played two years of football as a varsity end and ran the option on the track squad. Since coming to Bard, Ackerman has consistently raised the standing of intercollegiate teams here by carrying out improved organizations and developing the truest constructs of opposition. He has organized an extensive intramural program with competition in all sports and the consequent participation of increased numbers of the student body in athletics.

To date no appointments in the athletic department have been made for next year by the Board of Trustees.

MUSICIANS PRESENT BARD HALL PROGRAM

(Continued from page 1)

As important as Mr. Deix played the solo part with good taste and a strength which helped to little in keeping the string group together.

Mr. Cullum's performance of the Grieg A minor piano concerto was, considering the difficulty of this work, very good. His tone was in places slightly hard and his rhythm rushed, it can be excused in view of the sincerity and feeling of the interpretation. Although there was a lack of contrast because of the fact that the orchestra part was played on the piano, the ensemble on the piano was excellent and the orchestra on this occasion, did nicely. In places the pauses before the entrance of the solo piano were, I think, slightly exaggerated and over dramatized.

On the whole, however, the performance was most enjoyable.

—L. B. M.

(The paragraphs on the performance of the orchestra were written by Mr. Roche, the Barnes.)

KAPS TAKE TROPHY, DOWNING NON-Sacs

(Continued from page 1)

the second part of the split season. They lost three games by overwhelming scores but did throw a scare into the University before losing.

Throughout the league schedule, the Non-Sacs made up almost entirely of varsity baseball men, gave some fancy fielding exhibitions, especially in the play-off encounter. Never were the hard hitting Non-Sacs able to get started in the title encounter.

Right on top for MORE PLEASURE

First for refreshing mildness — first for pleasing taste and aroma that smokers like — only cigarette about which smokers say "They Satisfy"

The mild ripe tobaccos — home-grown and aromatic Turkish — and the pure cigarette paper used in Chesterfields are the best ingredients a cigarette can have. They Satisfy.