ARNOLD-FOSTER TELLS OF FASCISM DANGER IN SPAIN

By Alfred D. Suckley

On Thursday evening, September 24, the Bard chapter of the American Student Union presented to student and faculty Mr. Foster, British statesman and member of the British Labor Party and a delegate of the Brussels Peace Conference.

Comparing the Spanish situation most the intellectual and potentially serious political force is the Fascist party, Mr. Foster said, which have existed in Spain for the past twenty years and have been essentially an organization of opportunists who have exploited the present circumstances.

Comparing the situation in Spain with the period of the Nationalist movement, under the leadership of General Vicente Mora, Mr. Foster said that the Fascists are simply an extension of the old political organization. He used the term Fascist, he said, to indicate the political force which has been called Fascist, but which he believed to be the real source of the present trouble. He did not believe the claim that Fascism is again a force in Europe. He said that there were no currents of Fascist thought in Europe, and that the Fascists are simply an extension of an old political organization.

On this subject, Mr. Foster said that the Fascists are simply an extension of the old political organization. He used the term Fascist, he said, to indicate the political force which has been called Fascist, but which he believed to be the real source of the present trouble. He did not believe the claim that Fascism is again a force in Europe. He said that there were no currents of Fascist thought in Europe, and that the Fascists are simply an extension of an old political organization.

day's event was given by the Freshman tug-of-war team and the Freshman tug-of-war team.

The date of the tug-of-war was set for Monday, afternoon, October 5, at 5 o'clock. The place where the tug-of-war will be held is the Freshman tug-of-war and the Freshman tug-of-war team.

A tug-of-war has been held for the past few weeks for the benefit of the Freshmen and Sophomores, and the Freshman tug-of-war team will be selected on the basis of the tug-of-war.

Dean Pleased By New Chapel Plan
Back From Tercentenary He Says Harvard Is Becoming Like Cambridge

In an interview last week, Dr. Edmund D. H. Niles, president of Harvard University, said that the university was in the process of building a new chapel for religious devotion under the name of the Harvard Chapel.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.

The new chapel, he said, would be located on the campus and would be open to all members of the university. It would be a stone implement used by primitive man for more than 3,000 years.
WE SUPPORT ROOSEVELT

... on the Democratic Administration.

To get back to Tunis' concealed and unconscious system, I point out that the chief fault in the larger educational institutions lies in the fact that they have been submerged in the general economic and social problems and the past four years in college a real part of the entire pattern of life. College, to those of us who have been privileged to go, will distill anything to meet his immediate needs.

The task of education is not merely representative of the three fraternities and the non-soy men but also the very fabric of American society. Such opportunities are not common places.

Can we now take enough interest in our student government to make it an effective representative of the student body?
The Eva Jezzey Choir inaugurated a series of "Wednesday Evenings" on September 23. This negro choir sang in Gerikowsky's "Porgy and Bess." Tuesday evening was devoted to spirituals. The most appreciated number in this group was "Hosanna Shall Rise Again," with the choir making a splendid effort to correct and increase in volume the addition of some lighter works either from the moderns or the masters. She has most agile fingers and made even difficult passages flow easily.

Dean Pleased by New Chapel Plan

A Centennial Celebration was that the honorary degrees awarded weighed in favor of the sciences, perhaps because of the fact that president Conant is himself a scientist. From this observation, in part, the Dean surmised that Harvard would follow the trend in the academic world, rather than that of Oxford, becoming chiefly noted for work in the scientific fields.

While in Boston, Dean and Mrs. Conant enjoyed the hospitality of old "Back Bay" aristocracy. Because of this circumstance, the Dean was impressed with the close relationship which exists between the social aristocracy of Boston and the intelligentsia of Harvard. He stated that this connection, an old agitated monarchical definitist, exists to his forte. Viennese songs and songs from Noel Coward and Victor Youngman, he was much more at home. With these, the mannerisms of the present Losalts were apparent.

Miss Adale Marcus gave a piano recital at Bard Hall Sunday, September 27th. Miss Marcus has an excellent disposition among pianists and easily proved her worth. Her program was heavy and might have shown more variety had the addition of some lighter works either from the moderns or the masters. She has most agile fingers and made even difficult passages flow easily.

Arnold-Foster Tells of Fascism Monarcher in Spain

There is little doubt but that the radical government is fast crumbling, and with this the case, France faces the dilemma of preserving the rudiments of its great military prestige and with this the case, France is forced to explode at any moment, whatever are least shared by those who plan to do something. About it, the House of Lords and heard a debate of the European bomb ready in the ensuing war, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.

With this European bomb ready to explode at any moment, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.

In conclusion, Mr. Foster pointed out that this collective peace system is a preventative of war. It might have shown more variety by coming to Bard one afternoon but this could easily be corrected. It is the case, the French, and with this the case, France faces the dilemma of preserving the rudiments of its great military prestige and with this the case, France is forced to explode at any moment, whatever are least shared by those who plan to do something. About it, the House of Lords and heard a debate of the European bomb ready in the ensuing war, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.

Edward Visits Ancient Ruins

During his recent visit to Italy, he attended a session of the Italian parliament. Mr. Foster requested that the Italian government encourage the study of the Ancient Ruins of Greece, especially those of interest to the Architects of the Modern World. He also expressed his appreciation of the work done by the Italian government in preserving the ruins of ancient Greece and Rome.

In conclusion, Mr. Foster pointed out that the collective peace system is a preventative of war. It might have shown more variety by coming to Bard one afternoon but this could easily be corrected. It is the case, the French, and with this the case, France faces the dilemma of preserving the rudiments of its great military prestige and with this the case, France is forced to explode at any moment, whatever are least shared by those who plan to do something. About it, the House of Lords and heard a debate of the European bomb ready in the ensuing war, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.

In conclusion, Mr. Foster pointed out that the collective peace system is a preventative of war. It might have shown more variety by coming to Bard one afternoon but this could easily be corrected. It is the case, the French, and with this the case, France faces the dilemma of preserving the rudiments of its great military prestige and with this the case, France is forced to explode at any moment, whatever are least shared by those who plan to do something. About it, the House of Lords and heard a debate of the European bomb ready in the ensuing war, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.

In conclusion, Mr. Foster pointed out that the collective peace system is a preventative of war. It might have shown more variety by coming to Bard one afternoon but this could easily be corrected. It is the case, the French, and with this the case, France faces the dilemma of preserving the rudiments of its great military prestige and with this the case, France is forced to explode at any moment, whatever are least shared by those who plan to do something. About it, the House of Lords and heard a debate of the European bomb ready in the ensuing war, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.

In conclusion, Mr. Foster pointed out that the collective peace system is a preventative of war. It might have shown more variety by coming to Bard one afternoon but this could easily be corrected. It is the case, the French, and with this the case, France faces the dilemma of preserving the rudiments of its great military prestige and with this the case, France is forced to explode at any moment, whatever are least shared by those who plan to do something. About it, the House of Lords and heard a debate of the European bomb ready in the ensuing war, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.

In conclusion, Mr. Foster pointed out that the collective peace system is a preventative of war. It might have shown more variety by coming to Bard one afternoon but this could easily be corrected. It is the case, the French, and with this the case, France faces the dilemma of preserving the rudiments of its great military prestige and with this the case, France is forced to explode at any moment, whatever are least shared by those who plan to do something. About it, the House of Lords and heard a debate of the European bomb ready in the ensuing war, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.

In conclusion, Mr. Foster pointed out that the collective peace system is a preventative of war. It might have shown more variety by coming to Bard one afternoon but this could easily be corrected. It is the case, the French, and with this the case, France faces the dilemma of preserving the rudiments of its great military prestige and with this the case, France is forced to explode at any moment, whatever are least shared by those who plan to do something. About it, the House of Lords and heard a debate of the European bomb ready in the ensuing war, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.

In conclusion, Mr. Foster pointed out that the collective peace system is a preventative of war. It might have shown more variety by coming to Bard one afternoon but this could easily be corrected. It is the case, the French, and with this the case, France faces the dilemma of preserving the rudiments of its great military prestige and with this the case, France is forced to explode at any moment, whatever are least shared by those who plan to do something. About it, the House of Lords and heard a debate of the European bomb ready in the ensuing war, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.

In conclusion, Mr. Foster pointed out that the collective peace system is a preventative of war. It might have shown more variety by coming to Bard one afternoon but this could easily be corrected. It is the case, the French, and with this the case, France faces the dilemma of preserving the rudiments of its great military prestige and with this the case, France is forced to explode at any moment, whatever are least shared by those who plan to do something. About it, the House of Lords and heard a debate of the European bomb ready in the ensuing war, we ought to show the feeling of those peoples fighting desperately for peace.
THE BARDIAN

Wednesday

September 30, 1936

BARD, DOES RESEARCH WORK ON GENUS OF BUTTON WEARERS

(Continued From Page One)

to be the case but more of that later. Suffice it to say that when I first approached the button wearers without protest were sent in by outraged button wearers. The last straw came when one man accused us of using anti-New Deal propaganda against Landon.

What was THE BARDIAN to weather this storm of protest? The Republicans threatened to exile us to Kansas and the few New Deal button wearers remained unknown to one another.

I wondered if, after all, the long arm of Moscow had not penetrated discerning developments in Europe have met with a disastrous reaction and I have a direct bearing on the Christ- first angry word when I asked Donald Barrow, '39. His case was a serious one. For one can recall having seen him at any time this year, once. "Fink" was Bar- row's first angry word when I asked him about Landon, but I assume that he referred to Roosevelt. I jumped him. "Roosevelt promised me a button," said Barrow, "and further- more he says he won't tax any more but I doubt it." The next man I approached was Richard Elting, '39, a man of few words. His statement was as follows: "Landon will not, nor will Roosevelt, follow a policy of hand-to-mouth in regard to business. Roosevelt by the use of government funds has rebuffed the spoils system, and hence the lack of political propriety, letters but I doubt his statement. There will be no further attempt to interrogate the button wearers. Freshmen, when interviewed, had varying opinions about the vote. Some claimed that they were ridiculous, others detrimental; and still others were to be found already formulation new ones for the class of 1941.

SET TUG-OF-WAR FOR MONDAY P.M.; DELAYS SONG NIGHT

(Continued From Page One)

Section to this community.

With this action the Student Council emphasized its intention to maintain the student council as the deliberative body and governing council of the college.

The regular open council meeting for students has been announced and will hold sessions every Tuesday evening at 10 o'clock in the student recreation room. These meetings are planned to function as a clearing ground for student opinion, and as a means for the individual to represent himself personally before the governing body of the college.

First Offender of Frosh Rules

(Continued From Page One)

sat under the sacred Lyre Tree to trudge on equally sacred grass. Plunder, reminiscent of more har-sous years, appeared across the landscape. Meaning that Landon had erased the fundamentals in modern politics which is not ridden by the Republicans are irresponsible and childish.

Feeling that the New Dealers should be called to account, I called up George Rosenberg, '38, who proudly wore a button bearing a picture of F. D. R. "Why are you for Roosevelt," I asked. "Because he is more influenced by the needs of the farmer and the laborer," he answered. Feeling that this was a bit radical, I asked him to lower his voices. "Because the fundamental button-wearers ominously mumbled the form of government. "Feeling that the New Dealers are means for the individual to enjoy the perfect melon—picked by lamplight at its exact moment of full maturity.

The Secret of Fine Flavor

Like the Persian melon, the Turkish tobaccos used in Chesterfield are watched day and night.

There is just one right time to take off the leaves—that's when they have ripened to their fullest flavor.

Often the tender ripe leaves are gathered just before the dawn...to preserve the full "spice" and aroma for Chesterfield.

Chesterfields are made by Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.

...and you can depend on a Liggett & Myers product